Applications Developed

myRecipe, Live Demo | GitHub
- Full stack web application that allows users to upload and share recipes, achieved largely through React
- Applied PostgreSQL to retrieve information from the database and store user information, such as recipe information
- Styled with CSS3 and Bootstrap4 to create a user-friendly interface and ensure ease of use throughout the application
- Developed back-end server for the application using Express.js and interacted with the server via Fetch Calls

hoopLegend, Live Demo | GitHub
- Web app displaying information about NBA teams by utilizing AJAX calls from an API
- Styled with CSS3 to ensure mobile responsiveness across multiple platforms
- Dynamically developed pages depending on the user's choice for their favorite team utilizing using JavaScript (ES5)
- Created modals and fallback messages using CSS3, HTML5, and Flexbox to account for inconsistent data from the API
